

13 February 2023

COMMUNIQUÉ FROM THE OFFICE OF THE DEPUTY VICE-CHANCELLOR: TEACHING AND LEARNING

SPECIAL EXAMINATIONS FOR QUALIFYING M+ PROJECT STUDENTS

Dear Staff and Students

The information below concerns the Special Examinations, which will be written by students who qualify under the M+ Project.

1. Arrangements will be made for students writing Special Examinations to gain access to the Campus where they will be writing their examinations.
2. Students writing Special Examinations will not be required to register before writing but will be registered thereafter according to whether they have passed or failed the examination.
3. If students writing Special Examinations miss the last day for registration, arrangements will be made for their late registration.
4. Special Examination dates and schedules have been communicated to all students who have applied for and qualified for Special Examinations.
5. All other logistics for Special Examinations will be arranged and communicated at the College level through the Office of the College Dean of Teaching and Learning.
6. In the case where Special Examinations are conducted online and proctored via Zoom or Teams, special arrangements will be made for any student disconnected by loss of power due to load-shedding.
7. Appropriate catch-up arrangements will be made for students who missed lectures while they were writing Special Examinations.
8. Students writing Special Examinations will be afforded special academic monitoring and support to prepare them for Special Examinations.
9. The College Deans of Teaching and Learning will monitor the Special Examinations.

Issued by

Professor Sandile Phinda Songca
Deputy Vice-Chancellor: Teaching and Learning